Applicants for postbaccalaureate study at the University of Florida are required to compute their college-level junior and senior year grade point average, unless your institution uses a non-traditional grading system. This GPA will be verified by the university. An accurate self-reported GPA will help to expedite the processing of your application.

Please use these guidelines:

• Junior and senior level study refers specifically to all coursework taken after the term during which you earned 60 semester hours or 90 quarter hours. Typically, these courses are taken in the third and fourth years of study. This coursework continues until you graduate with a baccalaureate degree.
• If you apply to graduate school before you have graduated, your calculation of grade point average (GPA) would continue up to but not include the current term of enrollment. The current term is considered a term in progress.
• This GPA calculation includes all coursework completed. Do not include courses that were dropped or courses that do not award letter grades (e.g., satisfactory / unsatisfactory grades). However, if you have repeated a course, both grades must be included.
• When the GPA is computed, the result is truncated after the first decimal place.

Converting quarter hours to semester hours:

• If all hours were earned at institutions using only quarter hours, you do not have to convert to semester hours but may use quarter system credit hours to complete the calculation.
• Do not combine quarter credit hours with semester credit hours; instead, convert quarter hours to semester hours using the following equations:

\[
1 \text{ quarter hour} = \frac{2}{3} \text{ semester hour} \quad \text{OR} \quad 3 \text{ quarter hours} = 2 \text{ semester hours}
\]

For example: 24 quarter hours \( \times \frac{2}{3} = 16 \) semester hours.

Florida Residency Declaration for Tuition Purposes

A Florida “resident for tuition purposes” is a person who has, or a dependent person whose parent or legal guardian has, established and maintained legal residency in Florida for at least twelve (12) consecutive months preceding the first day of classes of the term for which Florida residency is sought. Residence in Florida must be a bona fide domicile rather than for the purpose of maintaining a residence incident to enrollment at an institution of higher education. To qualify as a Florida resident for tuition purposes, you must be a U.S. citizen, a foreign national in a nonimmigrant visa classification that grants you the legal ability to establish a bona fide domicile in the United States, a permanent resident alien, parolee, asylee, Cuban-Haitian entrant, or legal alien granted indefinite stay by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services. Other persons not meeting the twelve-month legal residency requirements may be classified as Florida residents for tuition purposes only if they fall within one of the limited special categories authorized by the Florida Legislature pursuant to section 1009.21, Florida Statutes. All other persons are ineligible for classification as a Florida “resident for tuition purposes.” Living in or attending school in Florida will not, in itself, establish legal residence. Students who depend upon out-of-state parents for support are presumed to be legal residents of the same state as their parents. Residency for tuition purposes requires the establishment of legal ties to the state of Florida. A student must verify that the student has broken ties to other states if the student or, in the case of a dependent student, his or her parent has moved from another state.

NON-FLORIDA RESIDENT

I do not qualify as a Florida resident for tuition purposes for the term for which this application is submitted. I understand that should I qualify for a future term, it will be necessary for me to submit an updated Residency Declaration while providing prescribed, supporting documentation to substantiate as “reclassification” of my status. I understand being classified as a non-Florida resident will not exclude me from the possibility of receiving a waiver to cover part or all of the out-of-state fee as defined in s. 1009.26, Florida Statutes. Submission of an updated Residency Declaration must occur prior to the beginning of the term for which residency is sought. I do not have to complete any further portion of this form except for the signing below.
